Dear Athletes and Guests,

It's my honor and privilege to welcome you all to the 10th edition of The World Games. After more than four years of preparation, the great days of our multisport event are nearly here. We promised to put on an outstanding showcase event, not least to cement our close relationship with the IOC, which will be observing The World Games 2017 very closely. We very much appreciate that the IOC President Thomas Bach will attend the Opening Ceremony and will take the opportunity to watch some of the competitions. We have claimed that our sports are on the same level as the Olympics. This edition of our multi-sports event will give us the opportunity to prove this. The stage is set in the best way to fulfill our promise.

Most of all I want to welcome our athletes. Around 3,500 competitors from 111 countries are going to perform at The World Games 2017. We expect the best competitors from each sport to perform in our event. They can expect that we deliver the best conditions for them to perform. This is one of our main principles: the athletes are our focus. Their needs come first.

That's why we put so much effort into preparations for The World Games 2017. I would like to add: we did it as a team. Let me use this opportunity to thank Mayor Rafał Dutkiewicz and Marcin Przychodny, President of the Wrocław Organizing Committee, and their team, for their commitment to making The World Games 2017 a success. I also want to thank our member federations for their support to set the stage for ten exciting days of sport. We are happy that we can rely on the support of several National Olympic Committees (NOCs) and that we have already seen the strong commitment of the Polish NOC. Finally I would like to appreciate the efforts of more than 1,700 volunteers. Your service is not only helpful, it is also crucial to present your city and your country in the best way.

I hope all the athletes give their best possible performances in fair competitions. And I wish the audience an exciting experience and the citizens of Wrocław a summer of sports to be remembered. I am looking forward to experiencing The World Games 2017, the best Games ever. Let's make it happen!

Yours faithfully,
Jose Perurena
IWGA President

Ladies and Gentlemen,

The World Games is the largest sport event that takes place in our country this year. It is also a great challenge – and an opportunity for Wrocław. TWG means 54 sport disciplines with nearly 3,500 competing athletes, hundreds of radio and television broadcasts to over 120 countries, which is a perfect opportunity to once again show to the world that Wrocław belongs to the top league of European cities.

For many years, we have been building the brand of the capital of Lower Silesia by developing and promoting it. It is an important element of our efforts. However, it is the city residents who are the most important indicator for all of our activities.

It is without any major risk that I can say today that The World Games have opened up new possibilities to us. Without organizing such a prestigious sport event, it would be difficult to renovate in such a short time – or rather, to build from scratch – an Olympic-size swimming pool, a skating track, or to undertake renovation of one of the most beautiful sports venues in Wrocław – the Olympic Stadium. All that with the city development and the city residents in mind, as they will be able to take advantage of those new facilities.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am convinced that we will once again deliver on that challenging task that we had undertaken. I believe that all participants of the Games will feel that they are welcome here, and the Lower Silesians will once again feel proud about their region.

Organizing grand, prestigious events has become our long-time tradition. We hosted the UEFA European Football Championship, we were the UNESCO World Book Capital. We organized the Theatre Olympics and the gala of the European Film Awards. The fact that all these undertakings were successful proves that our city is well-prepared to organize large events – including international ones – and that the residents fully accept them. The success of the European Capital of Culture project, and most of all, huge involvement of Wrocław residents is the best confirmation of that.

I would like to invite you to Wrocław, a place that is open, welcoming, and modern. Let's meet on the stands - as fans and also as athletes - at these beautiful arenas that will remain as legacy of The World Games.

Yours faithfully,
Rafał Dutkiewicz
Mayor of Wrocław

Greetings!

After many long months of preparation for the largest sporting event in the history of Poland, The World Games Wrocław 2017 are now upon us. For ten days, 3 500 athletes from over 100 countries will compete for a total of 222 medals to be given out in 31 different sports.

The World Games 2017 have served to open up a whole new range of opportunities for Wrocław and Lower Silesia in general. Thanks to this unique sporting event, the city's majestic Olympic Stadium could be renovated and with the help of the Ministry of Sport and Tourism, Wrocław gained a new and improved Swimming Complex as well as a roller-skating track in Millenium Park. While they are already open for use, these venues will also continue to serve the residents of Wrocław long after the end of the Games.

In recent years Wrocław has come to be known as a host city-organiser of some of the greatest and most prestigious events in Europe - and not only those of the sporting nature. During the EURO 2012 championships, we welcomed some of the Old Continent's top footballers and two years later we hosted the best of the best during the Volleyball World Championship and the European Handball Championship. We were also proud to bear the name of European Capital of Culture, UNESCO World Capital of Books and to host the European Film Awards. Recently, however it is our sporting venues which have received the most attention as they hosted numerous test events, thanks to which we can be sure that The World Games will be organised at a world-class level.

It is a truly great honour for us to have Polish President Andrzej Duda as honorary patron of the Games and to work together with a host of other partners including the aforementioned Ministry of Sport and Tourism, along with the Polish Olympic Committee and numerous sponsors and educational institutions. We would like extend our heartfelt thanks to each one.

We in the Wrocław Organising Committee will make every effort to ensure that your time here in our city is truly exceptional - so that you will remember Wrocław as a place that is both open and hospitable, modern and cosmopolitan - the kind of place you will come back to often!

We're counting on it!

Sincerely,

Marcin Przychodny

President of Wrocław Organising Committee

B | WROCLAW AND THE SHORT HISTORY OF THE CITY

Wrocław attracts tourists like a magnet with its location, mild climate, interesting historical sites and hospitable citizens. It lies in the middle of the Silesian Lowlands, where the Odra River branches out to form 12 islands of varying size. As the largest city of Lower Silesia, Wrocław is the region's administrative, economic and cultural capital. Standing on twelve islands on the Oder river and its four tributaries, it is often called the Venice of the North. It is a city with a thousand years of history: it passed from the hands of Czech kings under the rule of Austria, and then Prussia; finally, after the Second World War, it became a part of Poland. Today, the heritage of the past intertwines with modernity.

As a city open to new ideas and challenges, Wrocław has gained a reputation as dynamic and innovative. It boasts a broad cultural and entertainment offer, and it is considered to be one of the most business-friendly cities to boot. Its atmosphere attracts people from all around the country and the world. It is the visitors who say Wrocław is the place that must be seen first and foremost when coming to Poland. The most interesting historical buildings, artwork and museums can be found in the Old Town and its environs. They can be visited on foot, and many hotels and most restaurants and shops are within walking distance of the Old Town as well. Wrocław is an extensive city, so you should buy a city map or use a PTTK guide; please inquire at the Tourist Information Centre at 14 Market Square (Rynek 14). Cruises on the Odra River, with a great panoramic view of the city along Ostrów Tumski, are organized in summer. You can also enjoy a ride on the historical Hansel & Gretel tramway and on the open top bus, Fredrus. Find more about Wrocław at: www.wroclaw.pl

C | INTERESTING PLACES

Wrocław's monuments can be admired in a variety of ways: while taking an individual walk or a guided tour, or while travelling by an electric car, a bike, a historic tram or a cab. It is also worthwhile seeing the city view from a boat on the Oder River or from one of the observation towers.

Ostrów Tumski (Cathedral Island) is the oldest part of Wrocław. Surrounded by the waters of the Oder, the former stronghold which gave rise to the city comprises beautiful architectural monuments. The most impressive among them are the Gothic St. John the Baptist's Cathedral and the Holy Cross Church, restored after the Second World War. The Archdiocesan Museum's collection includes the Book of Henryków. The unique document containing the first sentence written in Polish, inscribed in 2015 on the UNESCO Memory of the World Register.

The Market Square is the oldest part of Wrocław. Surrounded by the waters of the Oder, the former stronghold which gave rise to the city comprises beautiful architectural monuments. The most impressive among them are the Gothic St. John the Baptist's Cathedral and the Holy Cross Church, restored after the Second World War. The Archdiocesan Museum's collection includes the Book of Henryków. The unique document containing the first sentence written in Polish, inscribed in 2015 on the UNESCO Memory of the World Register. The Market Square is the heart of Wrocław, an entertainment centre full of pubs and restaurants, throbbing with life at any time of day or night. The centre of the square is built up with the Cloth Hall and the City Hall, a unique monument of Gothic and Renaissance architecture, one of a kind in the whole of Europe. It also houses the oldest restaurant in Europe: Piwnica Świdnicka. In front of the City Hall's eastern façade, there is a pillory, and in front of the western one, a monument to the playwright Aleksander Fredro brought from Lviv. The market square is bordered by historic burgher tenements, banks and department stores.

The District of Four Denominations is a unique place, encompassing the area of Kazimierza Wielkiego, św. Antoniego, Pawła Włodkowica and św. Mikołaja Streets. There are four temples of different denominations in close proximity to each other: an Orthodox church, a Roman Catholic church, a Protestant church and a synagogue. The area is especially lively in the evenings, as local discos, cafés and pubs attract crowds of people.

HYDROPOLIS

The Panorama of Raclawice is a unique depiction of the Battle of Raclawice. 15 metres tall and 114 metres long, the painting by Jan Styka and Wojciech Kossak is housed in a specially constructed rotunda. The Panorama of Raclawice is one of branches of the National Museum.

The Centennial Hall (Hala Stulecia) is one of the most significant works of 20th century architecture. It was designed by the eminent architect Max Berg and constructed in 1913. It has been extended with a congress centre and hosts both regional and international congresses as well as trade, sports and cultural events. In 2006, it was inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List. Its history can be explored in the Discovery Centre. Nearby you can find the Four Domes Pavilion housing a collection of the modern arts of the National Museum.

A multimedia fountain is just next to the Hall. With a surface of 1 ha, it is one of the largest fountains in Europe. Its basin contains 300 water nozzles of different types, able to spurt water up to 40 metres, and 3 fire nozzles. There are also 800 light points on the basin's bottom. All of these elements contribute to free multimedia shows to the rhythm of music, accompanied by projections and laser lights. The shows' programme can be found on the website www.wroclawskafontanna.pl. In winter the fountain turns into a skating rink.

Hydropolis is one of the recent attractions of the city. The exhibition devoted to water is divided into 8 thematic spheres with each of them presenting water from a different, but fascinating point of view. The whole was located in a historic underground clean water tank boasting a surface area of 4,000 m².

The Wrocław Zoological Garden is the oldest and the largest (in terms of species variety) zoological garden in Poland. On its premises, there are a couple of historic buildings from the 19th century, such as the bears' tower, the elephants' pavilion and the apes' pavilion. The newest attractions include the Africarium: a unique complex, with few equals in the world, presenting the aquatic environment of Africa.

Apart from exploring Wrocław history, we invite you to search for its smallest citizens. Dwarfs are pride of Wrocław: the citizens have already set up more than 300 dwarf statuettes. They have blended in so well with the cityscape that few question their origin or number anymore. Additional information on dwarfs can be found on the dedicated website: www.krasnale.pl/en/.

GIFTS AND SOUVENIRS

Silver jewelry, often with precious and decorative stones from Lower Silesia, artistic glassware and crystal glass, ceramic ware from Bolesławiec, Lower Silesian porcelain as well as small stained-glass pictures, wooden toys, T-shirts and other products are all on sale around the city.

Regular bus and tram lines: On working days, buses and trams run between the hours of 5:00 AM and 11:00 PM. At the weekend and on holidays, they run from 6:00 AM to 10:00 PM. Night buses: The system of night buses functions between the hours of 11:00 PM and 5:00 AM and buses arrive every half hour at the main bus station PKS before continuing their routes in every part of the city.

To plan a trip around Wrocław, check out: www.komunikacja.wroclaw.pl

TRANSPORT MARKINGS Regular bus lines are marked with numbers from 100 to 149. Tickets for fast buses (numbered 4) are priced the same as those for normal buses. Tickets for suburban buses (numbered 6), express buses (marked with letters) and night buses (numbered 240 - 259) are more expensive. If a bus or tram number is highlighted in yellow on the yellow board or on the timetable, the route has been changed for some reason, e.g. road work. It is also customary for the bus or tram to be marked with the words "zmiana trasy" to indicate a change in route.

TICKETS Travelers using public transport should be in possession of a single or short-term ticket, which can be purchased in special points of sale or from a ticket machine. The latter can usually be found in the vicinity of a stop as well as in a tram or bus itself. Please note that tickets can only be purchased from a machine using a credit or debit card (including proximity cards).

Single (one-time) and short-term tickets - including those purchased from a machine in a bus or tram - should be validated immediately. A valid MPK ticket also permits its holder to travel free of extra charge between stations on all city trains in Wrocław. This allows travelers to save time while planning their route to work, for example and makes it possible to spend free time in a more enjoyable way.
